GLENDALÉ'S THUNDERBIRD CONSERVATION PARK FEATURED IN NEW T.V. SHOW WITH COUNCILMEMBER MARTINEZ

Glendale, Ariz. — Glendale Councilmember Manny Martinez's new edition of the TV show, Glendale Today, features the Thunderbird Conservation Park located north of Deer Valley Rd. between 51st and 67th Avenues. Martinez's guests include city staff who manage the 1,185 acre park.

Topics include the park's unique features such as a multi-use trail system for hikers, bicyclists and equestrian enthusiasts as well as the variety of wildlife at the park. Martinez and his guests also provide detail on why it has the designation of being a conservation park and what that means, such as efforts made to preserve the natural environment.

The show debuts Friday, Nov. 23 at 8 p.m. and can also be seen daily on Glendale 11, the city's television station. In addition, viewers can watch online via the city's video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video. For more information about the new TV show, visit www.glendaleaz.com/glendale11.
